THE CHINESE MAIL.

(Wah Tai Yat Pe)

THIS paper is now issued every day. The subscription is fixed at Five Dollars per annum, delivered in Hongkong, or Four Dollars Forty Cents in other parts of the Empire.

It is the first Chinese Newspaper ever printed under purely native direction. The chief support of the paper is of course derived from the native community, amongst whom also are to be found the greatest and most successful business men of the Empire.

The project, having their estimates upon the most reliable information from the various Presses in China and Japan, with English, Chinese, and Commercial News and Advertisements.

Subscription orders for the above may be sent to
